LOCAL WINE SPOTLIGHT

QUEENSLAND

Located at 1000 metres above sea level. Granite Belt is the only place in Queensland that offers four distinctive seasons. This premier wine producing area also experiences unique growing and ripening conditions, unlike elsewhere in Australia. The combination of cool weather and decomposed granite soils produces outstanding wines. Wine production in and around Stanthorpe represents more than 60% of all Queensland production and the region is home to almost 50 winery cellar doors.

SIRROMET

With 100 hectares under vine, Sirromet's vineyards are in the high altitude of Queensland's Granite Belt region. Situated 600-1500 metres above sea level and approximately three hours drive south west of Brisbane, Due to its elevation, this plateau experiences some of Australia's coldest winters.

2016 Sirromet Verdelho - 55

2015 Sirromet Pinot Gris - 55

2014 Sirromet Chardonnay - 55

CLOVELY ESTATE

The South Burnett region is in south-east Queensland, within a few hours drive of the state capital, Brisbane.

On the rolling hillsides an hour or two inland from the Pacific Ocean, we have a climate like Australia's famous Hunter Valley wine-producing region. Our long warm summers and mild winters are also reminiscent of Mediterranean regions.

2014 Clovely Estate Verdelho - 55

2013 Clovely Estate Reserve Chardonnay - 95

2013 Clovely Estate Double Pruned Shiraz – 135

While Torbreck now exports to all major markets, it has developed a tremendous following in Australia and their wines are the perfect accompaniment to modern Euro-Australian dishes. INTERNATIONAL WINE SPOTLIGHT

CENTRAL OTAGO, NEW ZEALAND

Bannockburn, home to Carrick wines is found deep in the southern interior of the South Island of New Zealand in the wine region of Central Otago. Nestled at the southern end of one of the broad glacial river valleys surrounded by the Cairnmuir and Carrick mountain ranges, the long cool autumns with their warm days and cool nights create ideal conditions to produce Pinot Noir, Chardonnay and Pinot Gris. Carrick is a small organically certified vineyard and winery producing approximately 160 tonnes of grapes per year. Typically, these are of exceptional quality. All our grapes are handpicked and put through ferment using only wild yeast from the vineyard. Fermentation for the Pinot Noir is in open fermenters then onto French oak for maturation and all whites are fermented and matured in French oak barrels.

2015 Carrick Bannockburn Chardonnay - 95

2016 Carrick Pinot Gris - 95

2015 Carrick Unravelled Pinot Noir - 95
